

LESSON FIVE

THE GREEK ALPHABET - Part 5

In this lesson you will learn the final four letters of the alphabet. You will be learning these letters by rhyme just as you did for the three letters in Lesson Two.

The names of the letters are as follows:

φ phi (fee)

χ chi (key)

ψ psi (psee)

and the final letter

ω omega (oh-meh-gah)

GREEK LETTER	LETTER NAME	LETTER PRONUNCIATION	PRINTED FORM
φ	phi (PH ee)	"PH" as in PH one
χ	chi (CH ee)	"CH" as in CH emistry
ψ	psi (PS ee)	"PS" as in ti PS
ω	omega (OH -meh-gah)	"OH" as in no te

You should learn the order of these letters according to the rhyme of their names. The Lesson Five exercises will help you learn to write and pronounce them.

LESSON FIVE

EXERCISE ONE

WRITING & PRONUNCIATION EXERCISES

After you learn the order of the three Greek letters by rhyme and the final letter in Lesson 5, you should learn the writing and pronunciation of them by using the exercises below.

Write each letter in printed form and at the same time verbally pronounce its name and sound. For example, the first letter will be PHI (ϕ). Write the letter in printed form and while writing the letter say, "PHI, PH." You should say the name "PHI" when you begin to write the circle part of the letter and the pronunciation "PH" during your final down stroke.

Your practice paper should look like this:

After you have practiced each letter across a complete line, you should combine the letters and practice them in order, pronouncing each letter name and letter sound as you write. Your practice paper should look like this:

After you practice the four letters of Lesson 5 in combination, you should practice all twenty-four letters in combination, pronouncing each letter name and letter sound as you write. Your practice paper should look like this:

After you practice this exercise, you should go on to the pronunciation exercises.

EXERCISE TWO

PRONUNCIATION EXERCISES

In this exercise you will be taken through the four Greek letters of Lesson 5 having the letters pronounced for you. The second time through you will be given a verbal quiz in which you will be asked to respond by pronouncing the sound of the letter when you see and/or hear the letter.

EXERCISE THREE

PRONUNCIATION EXERCISES

In this exercise we will go through all twenty-four letters of the Greek alphabet. The first time through the letters will be pronounced for you. The second time through you will be given a verbal quiz in which you will be asked to respond by pronouncing the sound of the letter when you see and/or hear the letter.

EXERCISE FOUR

PRONUNCIATION EXERCISES

In this last exercise you will be asked to pronounce the sounds of the twenty-four letters of the Greek alphabet in combination. We are now putting the sounds of the letters together as they are pronounced in the reading of the Greek New Testament. We will read through and pronounce the combination of letters and give you a verbal quiz in one reading. In the verbal quiz, you will be asked to respond by pronouncing the sound of the letters after you hear the presentation of the "line" number and "figure" number.
